Q1: Read the text and answer the following questions:

On 20 September, I visited the Jordanian National Museum of Fine Arts in Amman with my family. The Jordanian Museum of Fine Arts is one of the biggest art museums in Jordan. It's a museum of art from Jordan and other countries, too. It's special because there are three buildings and you can see art in the gardens, too. It's beautiful. We walked around the building. Then we went inside and looked at the art. You could see many different types of art, but my favourite thing was a painting by Abd Masoud. I learned a lot about Jordanian and world art when I was there.
